CRAZY BITCH IN A CAVE (Vienna, Austria)

R'n'B put through a shredder and glamour turned up-side-down. All held together by a huge love for DIY. The one-person band Crazy Bitch in a Cave plays with hair (literally!) & concepts in its eccentric live shows. Performance meets pop, charts meet sub-culture. CBC wants everything at one time, and even more.

For this purpose the artist uses the means of „poor drag“. Carton and glue, used paper and tiger stretch fabric, for example. Sometimes CBC also wears pieces out of „House of the very island...“ fashion collections. Contradicting identities are the fuel of CBC's songs. And at least in this matter there is also some similarity between CBC and its admired acts like Beyoncé aka Sasha Fierce.

HARD TON DISCO QUEEN (Italy)

Hard Ton, hailing from Italy, is an exceptional artist in every way. In 2010 he really kicked off his signature sound – a mix of (Italo) Disco and (Chicago) House- with two EPs which were released on Permanent Vacation and International Deejay Gigolo Records. His trade mark are his unique falsetto vocals. They have already driven audience around the world to ecstasy, e.g. the infamous Berghain club in Berlin.

“...music is like a dress to me, one possible way to express myself. After spending the last 15 years singing in heavy metal bands, i needed a radical switch. So here i am wearing sequins dresses and making music for the skinny dancers”.

Hard Ton graces „On Top“ with bittersweet pain.
